Letter from Florence.

FLORENCE, W. T., Jan. 16, 1863.

EDITOR OREGONIAN:

The miners of Salmon river mines have to congratulate themselves on the purification of the moral atmosphere of their section of the country. One by one, the pistol-bearers, who are on the shoot, are meeting with their deserts. To use our common mining expression, there is a spirit evinced to "clean the desperadoes to the bed-rock." By common report, and through the upper country press, the people of Oregon, and the Coast generally, have been kept pretty well informed of the powerful bands of robbers in our midst, and their actions. But few, however, knew the fact that, so powerful were these men that it was dangerous for men

TO CONDEMN RASCALITY IN THEIR HEARING.

In fact, thieves and robbers, of high and low degree, were so potent that the citizens thought it was but prudent for honest men to keep quiet in regard to the question of the right and wrong of rascality. The Lewiston hanging affair was the first indication of a disposition to put down these scoundrels.—The few villains who still lurked around Florence, became more docile, and deprecated any agitation of the propriety of putting them where they so richly deserved to go. The work having once started, I feel sure that the scenes of violence last season would bring the participants to the rope's end, at once, if again repeated. Having cleared our camp of these fellows, we look to a season of great prosperity the present year.

THE FAILURE OF MANY LAST YEAR, EXPLAINED.

The Winter of 1861-2 was beyond doubt the severest in the memory of man, as far as the Eastern portions of Oregon and Washington were concerned. Until the 15th of April, 1862, there was a great scarcity of provisions at Florence, and on the 1st of May flour was selling at $1 a pound. In many open situations the snow was pretty well off by the 15th of May, but for some time afterwards much of the best mining ground was covered with snow, and the ground in many places was frozen until the 20th of June. By the 20th of July, so rapid had been the process of evaporation, there was not a sluice-head in any gulch in the mines. On Miller's, Meadow and Sand creeks, there was a sufficiency of water to work with sluices, after a fashion. Towards Fall, this lack of water was partly remedied by digging a canal, of the capacity of about 1200 inches, but at no time running one quarter of that amount, from the north branch of Slate creek, taking in the waters of Meadow creek. This enterprise involved the expenditure of about $30,000, and promises to be one of the most profitable enterprises in the Nez-Perces mines.—It first touches on paying ground after [illegible] ing Meadow creek, where it is carried along the top of the ridge; out of which flows Rees', Caribou, Vasche's and many other gulches into Meadow creek; and Pioneer, Dragoon, Smith's, Brush, Lost and many other gulches flowing into Miller's creek, and from thence discharging into Slate creek.

All these gulches are but partially worked, and the red-hills out of which they flow, are known to be sufficiently impregnated with gold to pay from $6 to $20 a day, with sluices and a fresh head of water. There are really hundreds of acres of this ground, which has been tried in many places, of from two to ten feet in depth, a great part of which will certainly pay fully the amount I have stated.—This ground is pretty much all occupied by "paper-claims," but can be bought up at the most reasonable rates, in view of the inducements for men to prospect further for better ground. Yet with the certain richness of an extensive mining camp; the late spring, high prices for provisions and a surplus of laborers, prevented the success of many last summer. To these, add a large proportion of thieves, bummers, "sitters" and men who would not work anyhow, and no wonder there was an outcry against this camp.

STAGES FROM LEWISTON.

While on a visit to Lewiston a short time since, I learned that it is the intention of a gentleman, who is proprietor of a house of entertainment on the road from Lewiston to Florence, to put on a stage-line between the two places, with good stock, and a thorough arrangement for a fast line. Stages can run to the foot of the mountains, from whence saddle-trains will connect with Florence by the Milner trail.

The weather has been moderate for several weeks past, with an occasional cold snap; but nothing like the perfectly frigid cold of last winter. Stocks of goods are abundant, and sales only nominal, as the miners here have mostly laid in abundant supplies. In future letters, I shall claim a large portion of your space to lay the resources of this country fully before your readers.

SATURDAY MORNING, JAN [illegible] 186[illegible]

Negro Wedding.—A correspondent living in Salem writes us in regard to a negro wedding which came off there some time since, and which provoked some very unnecessary comments from some secesh blackguard. He puts the case in its true light. On account of the press of news on our columns we are are unable to publish the communication, but approve of its tone. It appears that some ladies and gentlemen attended the marriage of a colored girl who had long been a servant and a great favorite in a family at Salem. This circumstance induced an anonymous blackguard to rush wildly into print about the danger of negro equality. The names of Judge Boise, Judge Wilson, Mr Bush and many prominent citizens of Salem, were used in a most unwarrantable manner in connection with the affair. We can see no impropriety in any white person who may have a favorite—even if she were as black as the ace of spades—in attending the wedding of such a person. The practice is common among the Southern people, and the marriage of a black or colored girl is frequently the cause of fully as much ceremony as if it were a white daughter of the family about to be married. Indeed, the good feeling thus frequently called forth is one of the gratifications to the blacks that reconciles them to their lot. As a matter of course the "Overseer" element of the Southern people in this country, do not like it. We fully agree with our correspondent that, the heart of a man who could be guilty of making light even of a poor mulatto girl's feelings is blacker than the skin of any African.

None of Our Business.—The Postal Agent for the Pacific Coast is, Mr Watrous. About this time he is at Sacramento City, looking after the election of a United States Senator to succeed M. S. Latham. It is quite true that it is none of our business, although we had supposed that Mr Watrous was receiving pay to perform a public service in which Oregon and Washington are vitally interested.—It may be all right for him to attend the session of the California Legislature, although we cannot see it. It may be that the Government and the people have no right to complain if he does not perform the duty which he is paid for doing. It may be all right to have a Postal Agent for the Pacific Coast whose only real service is to assist some political aspirant but we do not believe it. Mr Watrous may think he is doing his duty by acting thus, and his superiors may uphold him in it, but we do not believe they will. The management of Postal Affairs calls for a thorough and continual supervision by the Agent, and we claim that the present Agent belongs in part to us. For this reason, we demand his presence here for a certain portion of the year. We expect to have it, and intend to try and see that we do have it. Logrolling around Sacramento is very exciting, but Mr Watrous will find something still more so, if he don't mend his ways.

U S Excise Tax.—The Collector for this State, reports $2 914 collected in the month of January, which added to the amount previously collected, makes the total collections $18,094. Of this amount $12,350 has been paid for licenses, as follows

Proprietors of steamboats have paid $2 512 (3 per cent on passenger rates,) the balance has been derived from duties on manufactures slaughtered animals, &c. No collections of any note yet made outside of Portland and the Dalles, these two places will pay a larger revenue than all the balance of the State.

Well deserved.—The Sacramento Union's Washington correspondence pays the following merited compliment to our good friend, E. W. McGraw:

The Senate has confirmed E. W. McGraw as District Attorney for the United States Court for the District of Oregon. The new incumbent resides in Portland, is a Union man of considerable legal ability, and succeeds E. D. Shattuck, elected to a Judgeship of the State Supreme Court at the last election.

Oregon City Woolen Mills.—The books for the Oregon City Woolen Mills are now open at Oregon City and stock is being rapidly taken. The capital stock is $[illegible]0,000, which is enough to start the enterprise with every needed element of success. Capt. D. P. Thompson will attend to soliciting stock subscriptions in the counties adjoining Clackamas.

Fined.—George Holmes was yesterday fined $5 for being drunk and disorderly. He plead guilty, paid his fine and will be for the future, we hope, a wiser and a soberer man.

Olympia Correspondence

Olympia, January [illegible]

Editor Oregonian:

Three more days will bring to a close the labors of the tenth session of the Legislative Assembly of Washington Territory. The assembled wisdom will then have an opportunity of returning to their respective constituencies and rendering an account of their stewardship. [illegible] the apportionment of representation in the next Legislature—thus disfranchising in a measure a large majority of the voting population of the Territory. The members first of the mountains have not sought nor attempted to seek [illegible] but upon the contrary have manifested every disposition towards a fair and equitable compromise, [illegible] illegally [illegible] in the eastern counties. Notwithstanding this, they have been unanimously [illegible] deprived of any additional representation whatever, though their vote be double that of the year previous.

The bill for the apportionment came up for action on Saturday, and was indefinitely postponed, the members from Walla Walla voting with the majority in order to move a reconsideration on Monday and giving notice accordingly. But the persistent opponents of the measure in order to effect its certain defeat aided by the Clarke county delegation, its pretended friends, (O how consistent!) succeeded in effecting an adjournment soon after the roll-call this morning thereby forestalling all action towards reconsideration.

The bill for the removal of the seat of government to Vancouver was also killed in the House on Saturday. This may account for the defeat of the apportionment bill. But can the honorable members from Clarke county explain their consistency upon these measures? Some matters that have had an influential bearing upon these questions are not so completely covered up in secret, as certain parties may sanguinely imagine.

The Revenue bill has not yet been reported by the select committee to which it was referred several days since. I learn that quite a number of material amendments will be suggested by the committee. The time of the session however, is so short now that little hope can be entertained for the passage of this bill. This bill has been before the House for about four weeks, but I regret to say, it has not received that consideration which its nature and importance demanded.

I learn that Messrs Chase and Northrup and perhaps others of the eastern delegation will take their leave by to-morrow morning's stage, homeward bound. The continued absence, during the session, of Messrs Blake and Slater has resulted disastrously to the interests of that portion of our Territory, and it is earnestly hoped that, in the future, those who claim and receive the confidence and suffrages of the people east of the mountains will not betray the trust imposed, and permit designing politicians, through their instruments, to trample upon the just rights of the people when their presence and efforts may have secured a different result. These are matters of importance to that growing country, and I doubt not will be more carefully considered in the future.

We are again blessed with delightful sunshiny weather. No news—nobody shot or hung by a mob to day.

ORPHEUS.

Walla Walla News.—We make up our summary of news from the Washington Statesman of January 24th.

Snow at Auburn and in Powder river valley was from fifteen inches to two feet in depth on the 18th of January. The stock on Powder river was in good condition. Snow on the Blue mountains was from one to five feet deep. In Grand Ronde valley there was no snow and but little on the hills around it. The trail from Auburn to Boise was open, and people were constantly going to the new discoveries.

News from Boise mines to the 12th of January state that the snow was about three feet deep. But little mining work was going on, but building was progressing rapidly. Placerville contains a population of 1,000, and has about 100 houses. The reports about the mines still continue favorable.

Wilson, who was condemned to five years imprisonment, for an attempt to murder Mr Sperry last Summer, has escaped from the Walla Walla jail.

S. S. Slater has been appointed Post master at Oro Fino, Shoshone county; L. Arnold, at Florence, Idaho county; W. A. Mossman, at Elk City, Nez Perces county, and Frank Worden at Hellgate, Missoula county, all in Washington Territory.

Birth day Celebration.—The coming anniversary of Washington's birth day will be celebrated at Bellpassi Mansion [illegible], on which occasion the exercises will be of a most interesting description. The celebration comes off under the auspices of the Washington Literary Society. An oration will be delivered by Governor A. C. Gibbs, who will be followed by that eminently practical gentleman Samuel Brown, Esq. of Bellpassi, in a delivery of the President's Emancipation Proclamation. A brass band and a choir of vocalists will be in attendance to lend interest to the occasion. The ceremonies of the day will end in a dance at the church and school house building at Bellpassi. A most agreeable reunion is anticipated and the presence of as many patriotic Union people as may find it possible to attend is earnestly requested. The 22d of February falling on Sunday, Saturday the 21st is fixed for this truly patriotic celebration of the birth day of the Father of his country.

Decline in the Price of Rags.—The Boston Journal's correspondent, December 22d, says:

Rags are going down. On Wednesday they fell two cents, and greater declines threatened. The amount of paper stock which the present high prices have brought forward is immense. Old paper has fallen to four cents a pound and one party in this city who has been buying very largely has stopped purchasing, having now over fifty thousand pounds on hands. Those who are holding their rags or old paper had better sell at once.

LATER FROM THE EAST.

News of January 19th.

Washington, Jan 19.—In the Senate to-day Mr. McDougall of California introduced a resolution to the effect that the present attempt of the French Government to subjugate the Republic of Mexico to her authority is in violation of the established rules of international law; that it is a violation of the faith of France pledged by treaty made at London in the Fall of 1861 between Spain, France and England; that it is not only unfriendly to Mexico, but to [illegible]. Further, that it is the duty of this Republic to require of France that her armies be withdrawn, and that it is the duty of this Republic to [illegible] Mexico [illegible] to prevent the forcible interposition of States [illegible] political affairs [illegible]. McDougall's resolutions were laid over until Thursday.

New York, Jan 19.—News from Havana [illegible] the Alabama was off that port [illegible].

A special Washington dispatch to the [illegible] says that the House Committee on Territories [illegible] the admission of New Mexico, Colorado and Nebraska into the Union as States.

Washington, Jan 19.—In the House [illegible] introduced a bill authorizing duties [illegible] paid by importers in legal tender notes with 50 per cent added, which was referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

New York, Jan 19.—The bank statement shows an increase of specie of $811,000.

Washington, Jan 19.—The President sent a message to Congress to-day announcing that he had signed a joint resolution for the immediate payment of the army and navy of the United States, the issue of Treasury notes for the purpose to be $100,000,000. He expresses regret that [illegible] will [illegible]. He favors [illegible] taxation [illegible] bank circulation, and declares that a uniform currency is [illegible] indispensable. So soon as the Secretary of the Treasury learned that the President had signed the resolution, he placed to the credit of several of the paymasters sufficient funds to pay the whole army and navy of the United States. Fifty three paymasters were supplied with sums ranging from $50,000 to $7,000,000. This last sum was sent to the paymaster at Louisville and $700,000 to San Francisco.

The Senate in Executive session to-day confirmed the nomination of Huntington of Oregon, as Superintendent of Indian Affairs in that State.

News of January 20th.

New York, Jan 20.—A letter from the Army of the Potomac to the Tribune says that the report from Nashville that Longstreet's corps had removed westward to reinforce Bragg is unfounded. Longstreet himself was here two days ago with his command. It is believed that no entire corps has been withdrawn from our front, but we have information from deserters that some divisions and batteries have been detached and sent to Tennessee.

A Washington special dispatch says the Committee on Ways and Means yesterday morning acted on a report of the sub-committee, and by a nearly unanimous vote gave to the Secretary of the Treasury power to sell bonds at the best price he could obtain. They also took away from the holders of legal tenders the right to invest at pleasure in 20 years bonds. The bill will probably be reported to-day. That satisfies both the Committees and the Secretary of the Treasury.

Carl Schurz has received a command in Sigel's corps, Sigel being placed in command of the reserves.

Philadelphia, Jan 19.—The bark Achilles is expected to sail to-day with 5 000 barrels of flour, a part of the contributions of Philadelphians to the relief of suffering operatives in England.

European Intelligence.

Portland, (Me.) Jan 19.—The Hibernian with dates from Liverpool to the 18th and Londonderry to the 9th, has arrived.

A correspondent of the London Times just returned from Madeira, says the U. S. steamer Tuscarora has been employed in a sort of blockade of Funchal. British steamers bound for Nassau were lying in the Roadstead, on the 10th of December. The Tuscarora chased one of them, the Douro, about a mile and a half from the shore. She sent a boat to her, and after examining the Douro's passengers allowed her to proceed.

The Paris correspondent of the London Times says that Napoleon at a New Year's Day reception said to Mr Dayton, U. S. Minister, that he regretted greatly the continuance of the civil war, but hoped by New Years Day next it would be settled. This was said, says the correspondent, with a forced smile, and it may be interpreted as a peace wish prediction, or even as an indication of something still more significant. Another person who the same day expressed to the Emperor the earnest hope that the battle of Fredericksburg would be the last, the Emperor said [illegible] and hoped that the war would end by early spring. This incident created many conjectures.

The U. S. Minister at Madrid has protested against the sale of the Sumter, the rebel privateer, which he says will not be respected by the Federal cruisers, as she is a Federal vessel seized by the rebels at New Orleans.

The unemployed cotton operatives in France are computed to number 300,000, who are in absolute destitution.

The Paris correspondent of the London Times says that the relations between Paris and Madrid are far from cordial.

The French Government is anxious to have the cooperation of England after the French troops are in possession of the Capital of Mexico.

The Daily Oregonian.

CITY.

The MORNING OREGONIAN has a larger SUBSCRIPTION LIST than any other Daily published in this City.

Legal Tender Notes this Day---65 cents.

ADVANCE IN SUBSCRIPTION.—From this time forward the subscription for the DAILY OREGONIAN will be 75 cents a week. We are compelled to advance our rates by the large and increasing price of printing paper, and hope that we will not have to part company with a single subscriber, in consequence of this advance, but that our readers will cheerfully consent to a step which is necessary to the successful continuance of the publication of the paper.

THE INDIANS.—The Indians at the rancheria below town are in a condition of abject misery. Four of the men are lying prostrate from the effects of severe wounds with a knife or hatchet. One, it is likely, will not recover. He has received a very ugly stab on the right side, of the spine, just below the shoulder blade, and suffers intensely. Another is cut with both a knife and hatchet across the arm and hand. The third is so severely wounded that he will find it very uncomfortable to sit down for some time to come. The fourth man is but slightly hurt. The Siletz Indians moved away the day after the battle, and we could not ascertain which party was to blame, or whether the Siletz Indians had any of their party hurt or not. These Siletz savages are of old Skookum John's Rogue river band, and are said to be fond of fighting. The Spokane's, to whom the wounded men belong, are from the Yamhill Reservation. They deny roundly that lum (strong drink) had anything to do with the row, which is probably not true, as all hands look as if they had been on a spree. We recommend that some means be taken to return these Indians to the Reservation. In this place, they are a curse to themselves and to the city. Either the city, county, State or the U. S. authorities have control of these Indians, and they should exercise it at once.

SUIT AGAINST THE CITY.—A suit was decided yesterday, which was heard the day before in the Recorder's court. It was the suit of Wm. Grooms, City Marshal, against the City of Portland for certain fees for services rendered the City Council, viz: for attendance at sixteen meetings of the Council, at $3 each, $48; for serving eighteen notices for attendance of Councilmen, at special meetings, at 50 cents each, $9; making a total of $57. In rendering judgement, the Recorder allowed that there was proof that the Marshal had proven attendance at eleven regular and one special meeting of the Council, for which he gave judgment in favor of Wm. Grooms for $36. It appears that this bill was once before the Council and was referred to the Committee on Ways and Means, who reported that it could be paid without levying a special tax; which we think was about true, as there was something over $2000 in the City Treasury at the time. Definite action at the time would have saved the City the cost and vexation of a law-suit, and the shame of being sued at all. The claim of the Marshal was founded on the provisions of Ordinance 114. If this enactment is not sufficiently guarded to prevent the occurrence of such another suit, it ought to be amended to that end.

COMMITTED.—A young man named Isaiah H. Cook was arrested day before yesterday, and yesterday morning was brought before Justice Anderson for examination on the charge of larceny, in having stolen fifteen hogs from Daniel Haight & Co. Messrs. Haight & Co. have a slaughter house on the Tannery creek, and some days since turned out of their corall, fifteen head of hogs which are missing. After examination, the accused was held to answer at the next term of the Circuit Court for the crime of grand-larceny. His bail was fixed at $250, which he failed to give and was taken to jail.

Coughs.—The sudden changes of our climate are sources of PULMONARY, BRONCHIAL and ASTHMATIC AFFECTIONS. Experience having proved that simple remedies often act speedily and certainly when taken in the early stages of the disease, recourse should at once be had to "Brown's Bronchial Troches," or Lozenges, let the Cold, Cough, or Irritation of the Throat be ever so slight, as by this precaution a more serious attack may be effectually warded off. PUBLIC SPEAKERS and SINGERS will find them useful for clearing and strengthening the voice. See advertisement. dec16d&w3m

Storage.—THE FIRE-PROOF STONE WAREHOUSE, opposite Umatilla House, is the only building, not made of wood, at the Dalles where goods are taken on STORAGE. All other houses that take goods on storage are wooden buildings and in exposed parts of the town, liable to the risk of fire. The subscriber assures his patrons that his charges are but $1 50 per ton per month storage and although storage in wooden buildings is $1 00 per ton, yet the public cannot fail to perceive the advantages the subscriber possesses over other warehouses of this place.

White's Fever and Ague Drops.—For the cure of AGUE, PANAMA FEVER, NEURALGIA and GENERAL DEBILITY.

This medicine has been used in private practice for many years with great success. Indeed, in no instance has it failed to effect a speedy cure in Ague especially, one bottle having been found sufficient in most cases and in none are more than two bottles required.

A great number of testimonials could be given to verify these statements, but the proprietor prefers relying upon the merits of the medicine alone. A cure is guaranteed in nine cases out of ten.

Prepared only by ROBERT WHITE, Chemist and Druggist, Main street, Placerville and Broadway, Upper Placerville. For sale by all respectable Druggists throughout the State.

PAIN PANACEA.

Is composed entirely of healing gums, and vegetable oils and herbs. It is perfectly safe for the most delicate to use. I candidly and most truly say that I have never known any, however delicate, to be injured by it in the least. I will continue to ask the afflicted who have not used it, to try it for the following disease. If they are not satisfied with its healing properties, the money will be cheerfully returned by the agent where the medicine is for sale.

If you have pain in the stomach or bowels, try a dose of Pain Panacea internally, bathe externally over the parts affected and you will at once restore the proper action and relieve the pain.

If you have a Bruise or Wound, bathe it well with the Pain Panacea four times a day. It will relieve the pain, and take out all the poison, and heal the wound in a short time.

If you are suffering from Neuralgia or Rheumatic Pains, apply the Pain Panacea freely, and take a dose of it internally, morning, noon and night. It will not only cure the pain, but will remove the cause of the disease.

If you have the Dyspepsia, and your food distresses your stomach after eating, take a dose of Pain Panacea after each meal.

If you have a Cankered or Sore Mouth or Throat, apply the Pain Panacea to the affected parts, and gargle the mouth or throat three or four times a day.

If you have the Diarrhœa, or a relaxed state of the bowels, take a dose of Pain Panacea, and they will soon be restored. If you have a painful swelling, bathe the parts freely and you will soon relieve pain, and the swelling will be reduced.

If you have a severe tooth-ache, apply the Pain Panacea on a piece of cotton and bathe gum at the same time, it will stop the pain instantly.

If you have a pain in the Breast, Side, Back or Kidneys, bathe parts affected morning and night, at the same time take a dose of the Panacea internally.

If a Mother has a caked breast, apply the Panacea as hot as it can be borne.

If you feel chilly or cold, as though you were going to have a fever, take a dose of Panacea.

If you have a wound, cut or galls upon your horse, apply the Pain Panacea; it will take out all the inflammation and heal the sore in a short time.

Thy rocks that [illegible]
Once mossed and green [illegible] the sight,
I pity thee—I pity thee

Oh! land of [illegible]—by nature crown'd
With more than princely gifts
In every part thy charms abound
In vale and airy cliffs
Thy fields were rich in corn and wine,
Thy flocks [illegible]
Alas! a judgment storm divine,
I pity thee—I pity thee

O, land of sorrow grief and woe
Deep fallen and ingrate,
The cause, if any seek to know,
My muse shall brief relate
From night of ages borne along,
On black and turbid wave
A monster fiend of loathsome form,
To dig thy early grave

Oppressions, rank that smell to Heaven,
And crimes ignored of God,
In spite of every warning given,
By Heaven's avenging rod
Thy trade in human flesh and blood
Thy frauds on Liberty,
Have brought a storm of wrath from God
I pity thee—I pity thee

I pity thee—thy cities burned,
Thy beauty put to shame,
And all the gold thy slaves have earned
Destroyed in treason's name
I pity thee, as oft I think,
Of thine, like primal rock
Who loyal stand and never shrink
From war's fierce battle shock,
Be this my prayer—and ever be—
God pity thee—God pity thee

Politeness Necessary among Intimate Friends

The common fallacy is, that intimacy dispenses with the necessity of politeness The truth is just the opposite of this The more points of contact there are, the more danger of friction there is, and the more carefully should people guard against it If you see a man only once a month, it is not of so vital importance that you do not trench on his rights, tastes, or whims He can bear to be crossed or annoyed occasionally. If he does not have a high regard for you, it is comparatively unimportant, because your paths are generally so diverse But you and the man with whom you dine every day have it in your power to make each other exceedingly uncomfortable A very little dropping will wear away a rock, if it only keep at it. The thing that you would think of, if it occurred only twice a year, becomes an intolerable burden when it happens twice a day. This is where husbands and wives run aground. They take too much for granted If they would but see that they have something to gain, something to save, as well as something to enjoy, it would be better for them; but they proceed on the assumption that their love is an inexhaustible tank, and not a fountain depending for its supply on the stream that trickles into it. So, for every little annoying habit, or weakness, or fault, they draw on the tank without being careful to keep the supply open, till they awake some morning to find the pump dry, and instead of love, at best, nothing but a cold habit of complacence On the contrary, the more or innate friends become, whether married or unmarried, the more scrupulously should they strive to repress in themselves everything annoying, and to cherish both in each other and themselves, everything pleasing While each should draw on his love to neutralize the faults of his friend, it is suicidal to draw on his friend's love to neutralize his own faults. Love should be cumulative, since it cannot be stationary If it does not increase, it decreases Love, like confidence, is a plant of slow growth, and of most exotic fragility It must be constantly and tenderly cherished Every noxious and foreign element must be carefully removed from it All sunshine, and sweet airs, and morning dews, and evening showers must breathe upon it perpetual fragrance, or it dies into a hideous and repulsive deformity, fit only to be cast out and trodden under foot of men, while, properly cultivated, it is a Tree of Life.

A Few Words about Cotton.

At the close of the Revolution, cotton was not raised in the United States as a source of profit. In 1790, less than one hundred bales were exported At that time the wonderful inventions destined to give importance to cotton culture were in their infancy. In Europe the "Jenny" of Arkwright, and the steam engine of Watt were being developed Arkwright died in 1792, and Watt in 1819 The gin of Whitney was introduced in 1793, and yet on a trial for the infringement of Whitney's patent in Georgia, in 1807, the cotton gin had become of so much importance, that Judge Johnson remarked to the jury that, "with regard to the utility of the discovery, the court would deem it a waste of time to dwell long on the topic From childhood to age it has presented to us a lucrative employment Individuals who have been depressed with poverty and sunk in idleness, have suddenly risen to wealth and respectability Our debts have been paid off, our capital has increased, and our lands trebled in value We cannot express the weight of obligation the country owes to this invention" Cotton had not then made claim to royalty. Were it not for the invention referred to, the rule or ruin element of the South would have had to find some other pretext than slavery for the present rebellion —The World

Truth at Home.

Of all happy households that is the happiest where falsehood is never thought of All peace is broken up when once it appears that there is a liar in the house All comfort has gone when suspicion has once entered—when there must be reserve in talk, and reservation in belief Anxious parents, who are aware of the [illegible] of suspicion will place general confidence in their children and receive what they say freely unless there are strong reasons to distrust the truth of any one If such an occasion should unhappily arise, they must keep the suspicion from spreading as long as possible and avoid discouraging their poor child while there is a chance of its cure by their confidential assistance He should have their pity and assiduous help as if he were suffering under some disgusting bodily disorder If he can be cured, he will become duly grateful for the treatment If the endeavor fails means must of course be taken to prevent his example from doing harm and then, as I said, the family peace is broken up, because the family confidence is gone I fear that, from some cause or other, there are but few large families where every member is altogether truthful But where all are so organized and trained as to be wholly reliable in act and word they are a light to all eyes, and a joy to all hearts They are public benefits, for they are a point of general reliance, and they are privately blessed within and without Without, their life is made easy by universal trust; and within their homes and their hearts, they have the security of rectitude, and the gladness of innocence —Harriet Martineau

HOW TO TAN SKINS —Take two parts of saltpetre and one of alum, pulverize finely, mix them and sprinkle evenly over the flesh side of the skin, then roll the skin tightly together, and let it remain a few days, according to the weather, then scrape the skin till it is soft and pliable I have tanned skins in this way so that they would be as soft and white as buckskins

CLOVER HAY FOR COWS —The N E Farmer states that Mr. John Day, of Boxford, Mass, who cuts large quantities of clover, feeds it out principally to his milch cows, and he finds that when the clover is exhausted and he feeds timothy and red top, "twenty cows immediately shrink two cans of milk per day"

Proclamation by the Governor

EXECUTIVE OFFICE PORTLAND OREGON

January 5 1863

By the President of the United States through Brigadier General George Wright commanding the Department of the Pacific and Brigadier General Benjamin Alvord commanding the District of Oregon, I have been requested to raise six additional companies required to complete the 1st Regiment of Cavalry Oregon Volunteers They will be required the coming Spring on the frontiers of this State and Washington Territory, and for an expedition against the Snake Indians, who have so long been mercilessly engaged in robbing emigrants and murdering our fellow citizens. I cannot doubt that the citizens of Oregon who have always promptly responded to any demand for their military services will in like manner respond to this call thereby showing their loyalty to the Government and aiding in chastising marauding bands of Indians which infest our frontiers

The enlisted men, when mounted, will be supplied with horses by the United States at [illegible] that they will be mounted [illegible] if not, as shall be deemed advisable by the Government

Propositions to raise a whole company which will furnish their own horses and horse equipments may be entertained The men in such cases entitled to forty cents a day for the use and risk of their horses and horse equipments

Each company will consist of one hundred enlisted men, and when mustered into the service of the United States to serve for three years, unless sooner discharged

Recruiting offices will be immediately opened at Portland, Dalles City, and perhaps at other places   By the Governor,

ADDISON C GIBBS

CYRUS A REED, Adjutant General
